FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2017 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

HB 42 amends forfeiture laws in Alaska. This legislation amends statutes relating to the Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing (CBPL) Big Game Commercial Services Board and tobacco sales licenses. These technical changes adjust the forfeiture statutes referenced in those statutes, but do not change the function of the statutes as they relate to Corporations, Business, and Professional Licensing.

Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing (CBPL) Investigations does not fall under the definition of a law enforcement agency within the bill as defined under AS 12.36.090 and AS 12.36.490. Neither the enforcement of criminal laws, nor the prevention, reduction or abatement of crime falls within our principal duties. CBPL enforces violations of licensing laws and in those cases where there are violations of criminal statutes. CBPL may operate in support of a law enforcement agency that would bear primary responsibility for the seizures and forfeitures detailed in the bill.

The Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing does not anticipate fiscal impact from this legislation.
