FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2018 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

The Department of Natural Resources does not anticipate any fiscal impact from this legislation.

The Division of Oil and Gas will be required to conduct resource and commercial analyses of any overriding royalty interest agreement applications. This would involve staff time to conduct analysis, but can be absorbed if the number of applications are low. If many applications are recieved, this would require additional funding for contractual assistance.
