

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTIETH LEGISLATURE
FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Sunday

April 9, 2017

Eighty-third Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 1:08 p.m.

Roll call showed 36 members present. Representative Neuman had been excused from a call of the House today. Representatives Gara, Pruitt, and Seaton were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Kito. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for all religions and spiritual beliefs, I offer this invocation in the spirit of hope and cooperation.

As we look back on the past few months and see the work that has been accomplished, and as we look forward into a future that cannot be known, we should pause and reflect in this moment on the path that has brought each one of us here to this Chamber.

We all have unique reasons for being here, but ultimately we are all here for our families, our friends, our neighbors, and all Alaskans present and future.

And as we contemplate the work we are about to do today and over the next several days or weeks, we should be humble in our service, thoughtful in our comments, and deliberate in our actions.

We are privileged to serve in this time of change for our state. We can step up to the challenge and complete our work quickly and efficiently, so that we can all return to our lives, to our families, to our homes, knowing that we have put our hearts in to the future of our state.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Westlake.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Tuck moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 82nd legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
