One Hundred Seventeenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:50 a.m.

With respect for all, I offer this prayer in the Alaska State House Chamber:

Thank you for the miracle of life that we treasure. Thank you that we live in a free country - help us preserve that freedom. Thank you for the mighty mountains across Alaska and the lovely birds that sing around us. Thank you for the beautiful ocean and the magnificent sea life in our waters. Thank you for the incredible wildlife in our great outdoors and the vast resources in Alaska.

As elected leaders in our state, help us to responsibly develop our resources and allow Alaskans to enjoy the royalties we benefit from those who toil to develop them. Give us clarity to know what resources to preserve and protect for future generations and which to enjoy today. Please give us wisdom to help solve the issues of today - taking care of the most vulnerable yet be wise enough to save for our future as we help energize independence amongst Alaskans.

As we face this fiscal challenge, give us wisdom to create economic prosperity, eliminate waste, and protect the safety of our citizens.

Please help us know when to drop our shields and swords and come together with a solution. Also, help us to know when it's time for a group hug and bring closure to the session, so we can celebrate going back home to our families and communities.

We ask a special blessing on all mothers, grandmothers, foster mothers, adopted mothers, stepmothers, godmothers, and all who have nurtured us. In the glorious name of Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Kreiss-Tomkins.
