

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTIETH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

April 4, 2018

Seventy-ninth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:57 a.m.

Roll call showed 40 members present.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Gordon Blue of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church. Representative Ortiz moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, you know how we live in our stories: the stories in our hearts are brighter in our thoughts than the sun as it rises in the morning. For this reason, you promised to place your love in the hearts of your people and the blessing of your truth within those who wish to receive it. You made us so that we may choose to hear and see you.

We remember with gratitude the words of the Psalm: Give thanks to the LORD and call upon his Name; make known his deeds among the peoples. Glory in his holy Name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice. (Psalm 105:1, 3)

Give the blessing of joy to this House of Representatives for Alaska. Enlighten the hearts of these women and men with the light of wisdom that the exercise of their duties may bring blessing to the people. Give them hope, wisdom, and courage to fulfill our obligations, bless them as they act for the common good, and guide them to teach the people the story of a Great Land wisely led. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Tarr.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Tuck moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 77th and 78th legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

Representative Tuck moved and asked unanimous consent that the notice and publication requirements be waived and the citations on the first special order citation calendar be taken up as a Special Order of Business. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Representative Tuck moved and asked unanimous consent that the House approve the first special order citation calendar. There being no objection, the following citations were approved and sent to enrolling:

Amendment No. 1 was offered by Representative Wilson:

Page 1, line 1, following "Act" (title amendment):

Insert "relating to the exclusiveness of liability of an employer in the case of death;"

Page 1, following line 10:

Insert a new bill section to read:

"* Sec. 2. AS 23.30.055 is repealed and reenacted to read:

Sec. 23.30.055. Exclusiveness of liability. (a) The liability of an employer prescribed in AS 23.30.045 is exclusive and in place of all other liability of the employer and any fellow employee to the employee, the employee's legal representative, husband or wife, parents, dependents, next of kin, and anyone otherwise entitled to recover damages from the employer or fellow employee at law or in admiralty on account of the injury or death. The liability of the employer is exclusive even if the employee's claim is barred under AS 23.30.022.

(b) Notwithstanding (a) of this section, if death results from the injury, the employee's personal representative may elect to claim compensation under this chapter or to maintain an action against the employer at law or in admiralty for damages on account of the death, if

(1) an employer fails to secure payment of compensation as required by this chapter; or

(2) the death was caused by gross negligence of the employer; it is presumed that the employer acted with gross negligence if the employer violated a federal, state, or local law or regulation.

(c) In an action under (b) of this section, the defendant may not plead as a defense that the death was caused by the negligence of a fellow servant, that the employee assumed the risk of the employment, or that the death was due to the contributory negligence of the employee.

(d) In this section, "employer" includes, in addition to the meaning given in AS 23.30.395, a person who, under AS 23.30.045(a), is liable or potentially liable for securing payment of compensation."

Renumber the following bill sections accordingly.

Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that Amendment No. 1 be adopted.
