With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

God grant that right here in America and all over this world, we will choose the high way; a way in which men and women will live together as brothers and sisters. A way in which the nations of the world will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. A way in which every man and woman will respect the dignity and worth of all human personality. A way in which every nation will allow justice to run down like waters, and righteousness like a mighty stream. A way in which men and women will do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with God. A way in which all people will be able to stand up, and in the midst of oppression, in the midst of darkness and agony, they will be able to stand there and love their enemies, bless those persons that curse them, pray for those individuals that spitefully use them. And this is the way that will bring us once more into that society which we think of as the community of humankind. This will be that day when white people, colored people, whether they are brown or whether they are yellow or whether they are black, will join together and stretch out with their arms and be able to cry out: "Free at last! Free at last! Great God Almighty, we are free at last!" [Martin Luther King, Jr.]
