Representative Kito – from 5:00 p.m., today to 8:00 a.m., April 13

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Gordon Blue of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church. Representative Ortiz moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

In the lectionary of daily grace, today we are given a portion of the 34th Psalm, including: Many are the troubles of the righteous, but the Lord will deliver [...] out of them all. He will keep safe all [their] bones; not one of them shall be broken. (vv. 19-20) Let us pray. Creator God, foundation of justice and mercy, we thank you for the light of understanding and the gift of wisdom from the ages. Help the representatives of Alaska to do the work they have been called to do on the behalf of future generations and of this one: to provide from the increase of the earth for the protection of the poor and the oppressed and the well-being of all your people. The Psalm continues: The Lord ransoms the life of his servants, and none will be punished who trust in him. (v. 22) Direct and guide the House, Lord, in the heat of disagreement, Lord, let them treat one another with compassion. Let them govern with equity and give us blessing. Let the people be glad and sing for joy. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Birch.
