

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTIETH LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Monday

April 3, 2017

Seventy-seventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Kelly at 11:08 a.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Tari Stage-Harvey, Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

On this day in 1898 an avalanche crashed through Sheep Camp on the Chilkoot Trail in the midst of the gold rush killing forty-three men.

As I offer this prayer, I think of the legacy of our state. The wild dreams that have brought people to the edge of the world, of fear, of endurance. The force of nature that crushes everything in its path. The spirit that helps us live in this tension of dreams and destruction.

Today as we remember dreams and lives swept away in the blink of an eye, we pray for humility. Keep us ever mindful of our limitations and help us trust that which is greater than ourselves.

I pray for boldness. May you all face the daunting tasks before you with the same strength and stamina as those who carried 1,000 pounds over the Chilkoot

Pass hoping for a better life. Thinking of that drudgery and toil might make a budget seem a bit more manageable.

I pray for passion. Fill us with a desire to nurture a state where treasure is found not just in the gold veins, but in our veins. May our lives overflow with awe at the abundance of resources and beauty of this land so we may treasure them and pass them on to those who come after us.

And maybe some wisdom too so we are not conned like so many into chasing rumors of riches, but do our homework to see what is worthy of our investment and energy. We've learned from history that children, elders, the land all return a treasure far greater than any gold strike. Amen.

Senator Wielechowski led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
