One Hundred Twenty-first Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Kelly at 10:43 a.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Coghill. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

God my Father,

Thank you for life and health, for friends and colleagues, for the privilege of serving our people in this Senate.

First we pray for those who have life changing and threatening problems among us. Please touch them with your grace and healing, give them your peace and guidance. Comfort and guide their families.

Also help us work through the issues facing this state with clarity of mind and respectful dialogue as we clash with our differing views.

We are aware of the importance of the work we must complete for our people, so with your guidance we go into the work of the day.

I remember your great love you loved us with through the gift of eternal life in Jesus Christ the Lord in whose name I offer this prayer, Amen.

Senator Gardner led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Micciche moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the one hundred twentieth legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.
