Most gracious God, we come humbly before you today on behalf of the Alaska State Senate. I thank you for these officials who have taken on the responsibility of leadership in our great state. We live in a beautiful state populated by people whom You love and for whom you provided hope, grace and mercy through Your Son, Jesus.

These men and women have been elected to a great responsibility to conduct the business of the state, to know many different issues and make decisions that will impact many people. I pray for wisdom, guidance and conviction to make good and right decisions. Our state faces many challenges that will determine the future of our great state. Please give a great measure of Your Spirit to discern what is good and best for our future.

And finally, God, I pray for these senators and their families. They carry their own burdens and concerns. Would you go with them and guide them? Would you provide for them, guide them and bring healing in areas of their concerns. And I pray you would guide them as they uphold the integrity of their office and position of leadership. Bless them this day!

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior,
Amen.

Senator Gardner moved and asked unanimous consent to adopt the following Sense of the Senate:

SENSE OF THE SENATE

It is the Sense of the Senate that the federal government should respect the will of Alaska voters who, in 2014, chose to regulate the production, sale, and use of marijuana. U.S. Attorney General Jeff Sessions rescinded the "Cole memo," which limited the conditions of prosecution on state-licensed cannabis businesses. The Senate believes the decision is Federal overreach that infringes upon states' rights, violates the will of Alaskan voters and damages a promising young Alaskan industry.
