Eighty-fourth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Kelly at 11:35 a.m.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Sister Marie Lucek, Cathedral of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

O God, we see and feel the unfolding of a new spring. Thank you, God, for the bright colors of this season, for longer days, for the beauty of your creation that is seen in each sign of freshness and new life. In the final days of this regular session I ask that you bless our senators with energy and the stamina they will need as they decide the best course to follow for all Alaskans. Gift them with wisdom, clarity, and understanding.

They have said yes to a daunting task: to represent the Alaskan people. At times when there are stalemates and no solution seems to be in sight, I ask you to give them discerning hearts and guide them to make good decisions. With your guidance and your grace empower them to continue to take on their work with confidence. Bless them also with a sense of joy in accomplishment and the satisfaction of being able to make a difference in the lives of the people they serve. I humbly ask all of this in the name of God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Senator Hoffman led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
