One Hundred Seventeenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Kelly at 2:35 p.m.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Wilson. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Heavenly father, thank you for goodness and your tender mercy which is over all. May we trust in your provision and love through all circumstances. I pray for you to extend our horizons, widen our vision, and remind us how inter-connected we are. Please help us to understand that peace does not come in defiance or anguished but is obtained through the stillness of the soul. Aid us to transform the difficulties that come our way, into opportunities. Inspire us to distinguish between what is essential, and what is not, and open our minds and hearts that we may always be people of good will who bring life and joy to others. And as we draw near to the end of our time in this Capitol City may you bless those traveling back home and those that have supported us to do the work of the people. Lord, whatever our positions and situations maybe in the future, may we never be so taken up with our own trepidations that we do not see or respond to the needs of others.

In Jesus' name I pray.

Amen.

Senator Meyer led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
