No public comment.

4. Public Hearing Related to Complaint 17-03

Chair Cook turned the meeting over to Hearing Officer Nancy Nolan.

Nancy Nolan stated that the primary witness, Naomi Klouda, was unavailable to testify. Since Nancy Nolan was notified of the witness unavailability at the last minute (close of business the evening before the hearing), the issue was addressed on record at the time set for the hearing.

After hearing from both parties, Nancy Nolan stated that, given the importance of this particular witness, and the late notice of unavailability, she would grant a continuance if that was the remedy being requested.

The attorneys held a private conference.

The attorneys agreed to proceed without the witness, pursuant to an agreement that Kevin Fitzgerald would not object to the admission of four documents that Tim Petumenos had hoped to introduce through the witness. The parties agreed to read the deposition into the record in light of the witness's unavailability.

Nancy Nolan read to the Subcommittee Pre-Evidence Instructions.

Kevin Fitzgerald delivered his opening statement on behalf of the House Subcommittee of the Select Committee on Legislative Ethics.

Tim Petumenos stated the respondent's position is that maximum access to the public be allowed to the hearing.

Nancy Nolan stated that it would be up to the Committee to decide whether the public is allowed to record the proceedings.

Chair Cook announced that there would be no restrictions on public recording of the proceedings but that there is only one official recording of the proceedings.

Chair Cook directed Nancy Nolan's attention to Kevin Fitzgerald. Kevin Fitzgerald asked Nancy Nolan to confirm that the Committee be allowed to ask questions during the proceedings.

Nancy Nolan confirmed that the Committee is authorized to ask questions during the proceedings.

Tim Petumenos delivered his opening statement on behalf of Representative David Eastman.

Kevin Fitzgerald called his first witness, Naomi Klouda, by a reading of Naomi Klouda's deposition. Jerry Anderson was placed under oath to read the part of Naomi Klouda. Fitzgerald read the part of Tim Petumenos.

Tim Petumenos read a selected section of Reuters Handbook of Journalism.

Exhibit 6, the transcript of the Naomi Klouda deposition, was offered and admitted into evidence.

Tim Petumenos requested then withdrew his request to admit into evidence Exhibit H, the selected section of the Reuters Handbook of Journalism. Exhibit H was withdrawn.

Jerry Anderson was called as a witness and provided testimony.

Exhibit 1, Jerry Anderson's activity log dated April 13, 2017 documenting Anderson's phone conversation with Representative David Eastman was offered and admitted into evidence.

Nancy Nolan gave instructions to the Subcommittee prior to break.
