FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2019 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This bill raises the minimum legal age from 19 to 21 years for possessing, vending, selling, gifting, or exchanging tobacco products, electronic smoking products, or products containing nicotine. It raises the age from 19 to 21 years for enforcement of sales to minors. There are a few exceptions to the age minimum including: electronic cigarettes if recognized as cessation device; age 18 and older for persons in active military duty; and under the age 21 for persons who are prisoners in an adult correctional facility.

The Department of Health and Social Services is responsible for implementing a comprehensive tobacco prevention and control program and enforcement of underage sales of tobacco products. There are no anticipated additional costs. Enforcement could be efficiently incorporated into the State Tobacco Investigator's existing activities, including education and training for tobacco retailers. Therefore, this is a zero fiscal note.
