FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2020 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

This bill makes several changes to statutes dealing with insanity and competency to stand trial under AS 12.47. Specifically, it adds a new section requiring a psychiatrist or psychologist to notify the court and prosecuting authority if they have reasonable cause to believe a defendant has become competent after charges have been dismissed as a result of a finding of incompetency, and provides a process by which a defendant deemed competent may be charged again for certain criminal charges previously dismissed.

Should this bill pass, no fiscal impact to the Alaska State Troopers is anticipated. Therefore, a zero fiscal note is being submitted.
