Eleventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker pro tempore Foster at 10:14 a.m.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Michael Galbraith of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church. Representative Kopp moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Gracious and merciful God, we give you thanks for giving us another day.

In this Chamber, where the people's House gathers, we pause to offer you gratitude for the gift of this land on which we live and for our great state of Alaska which you have inspired in developing over so many years. Continue to inspire the Alaskan people that, through the difficulties of these days, we might keep liberty and justice alive in our state, our nation, and in the world.

Give to us and all people a vivid sense of your presence that we may learn to understand each other, to respect each other, to work with each other, to live with each other, and to do good to each other. So, shall we make our state and nation great in goodness and good in its greatness.

May all that is done this day be for your greater honor and glory. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Josephson.
