Thirty-fifth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 11:05 a.m.

Roll call showed 40 members present.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Dan Wiese of the Juneau Church of the Nazarene. Representative Shaw moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

O God of all Creation, you have so richly blessed us who live in this great state of Alaska. We truly are blessed to call this incredible land our home. You have granted us to be stewards of this great state and all of its resources. You have granted us the privilege of enjoying its beauty and recreation and the freedoms we have in this state.

And God, I count it a privilege to pray for these men and women. And I thank you for them as they are elected to serve in the Alaska State House of Representatives. They are servants before you of the people who call this state home. And Lord, they are tasked with great responsibilities to govern this state, to pass laws and make decisions that affect the present and the future lives of their constituents. So, Lord, I pray for your wisdom and guidance to lead them. I pray for the challenges they face and the problems for which they are seeking resolution. I pray for compassion and discernment. I pray for conviction to do the right thing and make the right decisions for the betterment of our state and the future of blessing that we seek.

And, Lord, I would also pray for their families. Bless them, watch over them, and protect them. Be near to the concerns of their hearts. Give them your peace that passes all understanding. I can't help but reflect on the grace of God through my Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us all. It is in his name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Ortiz.
