

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE
FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Monday

April 8, 2019

Eighty-fourth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 11:12 a.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representative Ortiz had been excused from a call of the House today.

Representative Thompson moved and asked unanimous consent that Representatives Lincoln and Merrick be excused from a call of the House. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Dr. Thomas Fox Thornton of Juneau Society of Friends (Quakers). Representative Shaw moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Good morning Friends,

This prayer draws on two Quaker principles: Advices & queries and collective silent worship. The first is an invitation to the second and both are means of seeking the light of God. Thus, I respectfully invite you into prayer through query followed by silent worship.

A&Q 27. Live adventurously. When choices arise, do you take the way that offers the fullest opportunity for the use of your gifts in the service of God and the community? Let your life speak. When decisions have to be made, are you ready to join with others in seeking clearness, asking for God's guidance and offering counsel to one another?

A&Q 33. Bear witness to the humanity of all people, including those who break society's conventions ... Try to discern new growing points in social and economic life. Seek to understand the causes of injustice, social unrest and fear. Are you working to bring about a just and compassionate society which allows everyone to develop their capacities and fosters the desire to serve? [Silent Worship] Thank you.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Drummond.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Thompson moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 81st, 82nd, and 83rd legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
