Our Father in heaven,

Thank you for this wonderful day with its beauty and majesty that our eyes get to behold. Thank you for our eyes and health and breath and every blessing we enjoy.

We pause today to remember those who 75 years ago faced fear, death and a horrible war to give this generation our freedom, liberty and peace. Help us honor them and their families by protecting what they fought for with dignity, grace and honour. We go into the work of the day looking to you for grace to help in our need in doing our best for our people.

I pray with gratitude for your help, in the name of Jesus Christ my Lord. Amen.
