Twelfth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Giessel at 10:15 a.m.

The roll showed sixteen members present. Senator Micciche was excused from a call of the Senate. Senators Coghill, Shower, Stevens were absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Bishop. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love,
Where there is injury, pardon
Where there is doubt, faith,
Where there is despair, hope,
Where there is darkness, light,
Where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
not so much to be understood as to understand,
not so much to be loved, as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
it is in dying that we awake to eternal life.
(St. Francis of Assisi)

Senator Costello led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent the journals for the fourth through eleventh legislative days of the second special session be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Introduction and Reference of Senate BillsSB 2002

SENATE BILL NO. 2002 BY THE SENATE RULES COMMITTEE BY REQUEST OF THE GOVERNOR, entitled:

"An Act making appropriations, including capital appropriations, supplemental appropriations, and other appropriations; repealing appropriations; making appropriations to capitalize funds; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Finance Committee.

Governor's transmittal letter dated July 18:

Dear President Giessel:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting an appropriation bill that authorizes capital appropriations, operating appropriations for certain state programs, repeals appropriations and makes appropriations to capitalize funds for consideration by the Thirty-First Alaska State Legislature in the Second Special Session.

I recognize the importance of many items that were left unfunded or improperly funded during the Regular and First Special Session. This budget includes funding for the comprehensive criminal justice reform package, state match to leverage over $915 million in federal transportation funds, and various projects and programs that will provide services to Alaskans. Many Alaskans rely on the funds outlined in this budget to provide for their families, put a roof over their head, and keep them safe.

I appreciate the Legislature's focus and attention on this legislation. My Administration stands ready to provide additional information to help you during your swift, deliberative process.

Sincerely,

/s/

Michael J. Dunleavy

Governor
