FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2021 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This legislation provides flexibility for Alaskans seeking unemployment insurance benefits who have been impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. The bill would waive a mandatory waiting period before benefits could begin, and would ease able and available criteria for up to 120 days. The legislation also increases the dependent allowance provision to $75 per week for each dependent with no restriction on the maximum number of dependents.

Unemployment Insurance benefits are paid directly from the Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund, and are not included in a budget bill.

The fiscal impact of this legislation for waiving the waiting week is zero as these benefits are 100% federally funded and same-day reimbursed to the UI Trust Fund.

The forecasted fiscal impact from the UI Trust Fund for the $75 dependent allowance is $13.1 million in additional dependent allowance benefits on top of the existing statutory $24 dependent allowance amount. Since this is only an estimate the Department of Labor and Workforce Development will continue to assess fiscal impacts of the legislation and will provide updates to the fiscal analysis.
