FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2022 LEGISLATIVE SESSION*Analysis

The Office of Children's Services conducts child welfare investigations which include assessments for safety. The division works with a multitude of community partners in conducting its investigative work. The inclusion of military leadership as individuals who may receive information during a child welfare investigation is not anticipated to substantially impact operations as parameters already exist for the sharing of information.

The bill will have no fiscal or programmatic impact on the Office of Children's Services.
