With respect to all faiths, I offer the following prayer:

Heavenly Father,

I come before you to thank you for the wisdom that you have given me these past couple of years. I want to thank you for letting me be one of those chosen to represent this great state of Alaska.

Lord, you have given each of us in this building great responsibility to fulfill the promises that we have made to all Alaskans. I again will continue to ask that you protect those who protect us and give comfort to those families who have lost loved ones standing for that cause.

Protect our doctors, our nurses, and those who have chosen to take so much of their lives to save those they have yet to meet.

Lord, I ask that you protect our families who sacrifice so much while we are here doing the work for the people of Alaska.

Lord, as we begin to wind down our work here in Juneau, I especially want to thank you for the many friends I have made along the way. I ask that you be with each one of us, as we travel around the state.

And finally, as we enter and celebrate Easter weekend, I want to thank you for your son who sacrificed his life and then rose again so that we would live eternally. In Jesus' Holy name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Eastman.
