

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
THIRD SPECIAL SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

September 10, 2021

Twenty-sixth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Micciche at 10:39 a.m.

The roll showed seventeen members present. Senators Olson, von Imhof were excused from a call of the Senate. Senator Shower was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Kiehl. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Elohai, n'shamah shenatata bi t'horah hi.
Atah v'ratah,
atah y'tzartah,
atah n'fachtah bi,
v'atah m'sham'rah b'kirbi.
V'atah atid lit'lah mimeni,

Kol z'man shehan'shamah v'kirbi,
modeh ani l'fanecha,
Adonai Elohai v'Elohei avotai v'imotai,
Ribon kol hamasim,
Adon kol han'shamot.

Pure, my G-d, is the soul You have given me.
You formed it. You shaped it. You breathed it into me.
You keep it safe within me.

Someday, when this soul returns to You,
I will find a place in eternity.
But as long as spirit breathes within me,
I place before You my thanks,
Eternal my G-d and G-d of my ancestors,
Creator of all creation, Sovereign of all souls.

Senator Revak led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Hughes moved and asked unanimous consent the journal for the twenty-fifth legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Article 2A. COVID-19 Immunization Rights; Discrimination.

Sec. 18.09.300. Discrimination based on vaccination status.

(a) Except as provided in (b) and (c) of this section, it is unlawful discrimination for

(1) a person or a governmental entity to refuse, withhold from, or deny to an individual any local or state services, goods, facilities, advantages, privileges, licensing, educational opportunities, health care access, or employment opportunities based on the individual's vaccination status or whether the individual has an immunity passport;

(2) an employer to refuse employment to an individual, to bar an individual from employment, or to discriminate against an individual in compensation or in a term, condition, or privilege of employment based on the individual's vaccination status or whether the individual has an immunity passport;

(3) a public accommodation to exclude, limit, segregate, refuse to serve, or otherwise discriminate against an individual based on the individual's vaccination status or whether the individual has an immunity passport.

(b) This section does not apply to a vaccination requirement imposed by a

(1) school or day care facility; or

(2) health care facility if the health care facility

(A) asks an employee to volunteer the employee's vaccination or immunization status for the purpose of determining whether the health care facility should implement reasonable accommodations to protect the safety and health of employees, patients, visitors, and other persons from communicable diseases; a health care facility may consider an employee to be nonvaccinated or nonimmune if the employee declines to provide the employee's vaccination or immunization status to the health care facility for the purpose of determining whether reasonable accommodations should be implemented; and

(B) implements reasonable accommodations for employees, patients, visitors, and other persons who are not vaccinated or not immune to protect the safety and health of employees, patients, visitors, and other persons from communicable diseases.

(c) A recommendation by a person, governmental entity, or employer that an employee receive a vaccine is not unlawful discrimination under this section.

(d) A person, governmental entity, or employer may not require an individual to receive a vaccine the use of which is allowed only under an emergency use authorization or a vaccine undergoing safety trials.

Sec. 18.09.310. Objection to the administration of COVID-19 vaccine. An individual may object to the administration of a COVID-19 vaccine to that person based on religious, medical, or other grounds. A parent or guardian of a minor child may object to the administration of a COVID-19 vaccine to the minor child based on religious, medical, or other grounds.
