Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Micciche at 11:06 a.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Dan Wiese, Church of the Nazarene. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Holy God, it is with gratitude and humility that I come before you on behalf of this group of men and women, public servants for the great state of Alaska. I pray for their day of work and meeting together, that you would continue to grant them Your help and wisdom. I pray for wisdom in the issues that come before them. I pray for their health and well-being. I pray for different burdens and struggles they might be carrying that You would intervene on their behalf. I pray for their families that you would bless and help them. And I again pray for the communities they represent. So many people have had a hard winter with COVID, challenging weather and rising costs of living and various other challenges. I pray that you would guide and help those in need. May your blessing be upon each person here this day, as well as people all across our great state. I pray this in the name of Jesus, Amen.

Senator Hoffman led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Introduction and Reference of Senate Bills

SB 237

SENATE BILL NO. 237 BY THE SENATE RULES COMMITTEE
BY REQUEST OF THE GOVERNOR, entitled:

"An Act exempting certain ambulatory surgical center employees from overtime pay requirements;
and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Labor and Commerce Committee.

The following fiscal information was published today:

Fiscal Note No. 1, zero, Department of Labor and Workforce Development

Dear President Micciche:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to State of Alaska overtime law and ambulatory surgical centers.

Alaska law requires overtime pay for eligible workers to begin after eight working hours in a day or forty cumulative hours in a week.
Certain employers, such as hospitals, have an exemption from the eight-hour requirement, allowing critical healthcare workers to be on staff to meet the needs of patients.

The use of ambulatory surgical centers has grown nationally as many procedures do not require hospital admissions. However, these centers are not treated the same as hospitals for purposes of overtime rules which creates significant management challenges. The result has been a noticeable migration of nurses and other critical health staff to hospitals where a more flexible schedule allows the worker a greater say in their work scheduling.

This bill would place ambulatory surgical centers on an equal footing with hospitals in relation to overtime rules. Like hospitals, ambulatory surgical centers would still be bound by the federal forty-hour weekly overtime rule. This change is one step toward greater flexibility for healthcare workers and stability for Alaska's healthcare system.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,
Mike Dunleavy
Governor
