Lord you are good, and your mercy endures forever. You are slow to anger and rich in love. I thank you for this spring season and for the wonderful weather we have been enjoying. It's been great to see people putting their boats in the water, going for walks in the evening, children playing and laughing outdoors, youth playing spring sports, sunrises and sunsets, and the beauty of the Aurora Borealis. Lord we are so grateful for your glorious creation. We truly are in awe of you.

Guide us as we enter this new week. Let us be reminded that you are our rock and the firm foundation of everything we build. Lord, help us all to work toward a peaceful future, help us to lay a foundation of righteousness and create a world free of oppression. Help us to pay attention to your wisdom. Give us ears to hear your gentle whispers and divine voice breaking through into our lives. For You, O Lord, have promised to be near to us forever.

In your mighty name I pray,

Amen.
