Taken by the urge, knowing, feeling pain
Odin, All Father
Wish Maker
Gondlir
Let me know magic
Let me know truth
Let me know knowledge from my suffering
Show me wonder in the world
Open the paths of travel to me
Show me the wisdom hidden
Odin, Othinn
I harken unto you
Let me be ever learning
Allow my cup to be filled with knowledge
But never too full to learn more

Senator Revak led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Hughes moved and asked unanimous consent the journal for the one hundred eighteenth legislative day, Senate Journal Supplement No. 11 and House and Senate Joint Journal Supplement No. 16 be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

* Sec. 2. AS 03.20 is amended by adding new sections to read:

Article 3. Forgivable Loan Programs for Farm Development and Improvement and Meat Processing Facilities.

Sec. 03.20.200. Forgivable loan program for farm development and improvement. (a) The division of the department with responsibility for agriculture shall establish a forgivable loan program in regulation, under which a recipient's loan may be forgiven by the department if the recipient implements a business plan approved by the department to develop or make improvements to the recipient's farm as described in (d) of this section. A loan may be used by a recipient to fund investments in agriculture to build resiliency in the state's food supply. The forgivable loan program must allow a loan to be forgiven if the recipient implements the approved business plan and demonstrates a subsequent increase in food production and distribution.

(b) In administering the forgivable loan program established under (a) of this section, the department

(1) shall develop criteria for awarding a forgivable loan and a process for applying for a forgivable loan that includes requiring

(A) a forgivable loan applicant to submit a business plan that provides

(i) how the applicant will meet the criteria required by the department to approve a forgivable loan under this section;

(ii) a timeline for the applicant to meet the upgrades, construction, or expansion funded by the forgivable loan; and

(B) the department to

(i) approve an applicant's business plan before awarding a forgivable loan;

(ii) visit an applicant's farm, facility, or other site that would receive funding under a forgivable loan made under this section;

(2) shall require a recipient of a forgivable loan to report to the department on the use of forgivable loan funds;

(3) may make forgivable loans of up to $150,000 to an applicant for eligible farm development and improvement expenses approved by the department;

(4) shall, subject to appropriation, make the program available to applicants annually until all available funds have been distributed.

(c) A business plan approved by the department under (b)(1)(B)(i) of this section may be amended upon approval of the department.

(d) Expenses eligible for a loan under this section include expenses relating to

(1) clearing of land for agricultural purposes; and

(2) the purchase, building, installation, maintenance, or improvement of

(A) irrigation, drainage, and other water management systems;

(B) fencing, trellising, barns, greenhouses, or other farm buildings or structures;

(C) agricultural processing and farm equipment, including milking and pasteurization equipment;

(D) livestock, feed, seeds, fertilizer, and seasonal extension equipment; and

(E) bees and beekeeping equipment.

(e) A forgivable loan recipient must repay to the fund any money not spent from a forgivable loan received under this section. Forgivable loan funds used for expenses that are not eligible under (d) of this section or that are not accounted for in a recipient's business plan approved by the department under (b) of this section must also be repaid to the fund. Any money repaid by a forgivable loan recipient shall be deposited into the general fund.

Sec. 03.20.210. Forgivable loan program for meat processing facilities. (a) The department shall establish a forgivable loan program in regulation, under which a recipient's loan may be forgiven by the department if the recipient implements a business plan approved by the department and begins processing meat, or increases the quantity of meat processed, in the recipient's facility. A loan may be used by a recipient to fund the expansion of a facility that operates under a program of federal inspection that plans to increase processing of meat from animals raised in the state. The forgivable loan program must allow a loan to be forgiven if the recipient implements the approved business plan and demonstrates a subsequent increase in food production and distribution.

(b) In administering the forgivable loan program established under (a) of this section, the department

(1) shall develop criteria for awarding a forgivable loan and a process for applying for a forgivable loan that includes requiring

(A) a forgivable loan applicant to submit a business plan that provides

(i) how the applicant will meet the criteria required by the department to approve a forgivable loan under this section;

(ii) a timeline for the applicant to meet the upgrades, construction, or expansion funded by the forgivable loan; and

(B) the department to

(i) approve an applicant's business plan before awarding a forgivable loan;

(ii) visit an applicant's facility or the site of a facility proposed by an applicant to be upgraded, constructed, or expanded with forgivable loan funds;

(2) shall award forgivable loans preferentially to support facilities that prioritize seasonally feasible processing of meat from animals raised in the state; and

(3) shall require a recipient of a forgivable loan to report to the department on the use of forgivable loan funds;

(4) may make forgivable loans of up to $250,000 to an applicant whose business plan is approved under this subsection for eligible expenses approved by the department;

(5) shall, subject to appropriation, make the program available to applicants annually until all available funds have been distributed.

(c) A recipient of a forgivable loan made under this section may use forgivable loan funds for costs related to activity described in (a) of this section that are approved by the department, including costs of technical assistance and the purchase of equipment.

(d) The department may charge an administrative fee to the recipient of a forgivable loan made under this section to cover the department's costs of administering the forgivable loan program. The department

(1) shall deduct the fee from the forgivable loan funds provided to the recipient; and

(2) may not charge a recipient more than three percent of the amount of a forgivable loan made to the recipient applicant under this section.

(e) The meat processing facilities forgivable loan fund is established in the department and consists of appropriations to the fund. Appropriations to the fund do not lapse.

(f) A business plan approved by the department under (b)(1)(B)(i) of this section may be amended upon approval of the department.

(g) A forgivable loan recipient must repay to the fund any money not spent from a forgivable loan received under this section. Forgivable loan funds used for expenses that are not eligible under (a) of this section or that are not accounted for in a recipient's business plan approved by the department under (b) of this section must also be repaid to the fund. Any money repaid by a forgivable loan recipient shall be deposited into the general fund.

* Sec. 3. AS 17.20.005 is amended to read:

Sec. 17.20.005. Powers and duties of commissioner. To carry out the requirements of this chapter, the commissioner may issue orders, regulations, permits, quarantines, and embargoes relating to

- (1) food offered to the public or sold, subject to AS 17.20.017, including
 - (A) inspection of meat, fish, poultry, and other food products;
 - (B) standards of sanitation and handling methods for all phases of slaughtering, processing, storing, transporting, displaying, and selling;
 - (C) labeling; and
 - (D) the training, testing, and certification requirements for individuals who handle or prepare food, their supervisors, and their employers to ensure their knowledge of food safety and sanitation principles and requirements;
- (2) control and eradication of pests;
- (3) enforcement of hazard analysis critical control point programs for seafood processing that are developed in cooperation with appropriate industry representatives or, to the extent not inconsistent with this chapter or regulations adopted under the authority of this chapter, that are established by regulations of the United States Food and Drug Administration as they may periodically be revised;
- (4) labeling, subject to AS 17.20.013, and grading of milk and milk products and standards of sanitation for dairies offering to the public or selling milk or milk products to at least the minimum of current recommendations of the United States Public Health Service pasteurized milk ordinance as it may periodically be revised;
- (5) standards and conditions for the operation and siting of aquatic farms and related hatcheries, including
 - (A) restrictions on the use of chemicals; and
 - (B) requirements to protect the public from contaminated aquatic farm products that pose a risk to health;
- (6) monitoring aquatic farms and aquatic farm products to ensure compliance with this chapter and, to the extent not inconsistent with this chapter or regulations adopted under the authority of this chapter, with the requirements of the national shellfish sanitation program manual of operations published by the United States Food and Drug Administration as it may periodically be revised;

(7) tests and analyses that may be made and hearings that may be held to determine whether the commissioner will issue a stop order or quarantine;

(8) transportation of, use of, disposal of, recalls of, or warnings concerning quarantined or embargoed items;

(9) cooperation with federal and other state agencies.

* Sec. 4. AS 17.20 is amended by adding new sections to read:

Sec. 17.20.017. Inspection of processed meat products. (a)

The department may adopt regulations to establish a program of state inspection for the processing and sale of meat products, including meat products from amenable species.

(b) The department may administer and enforce regulations adopted under (a) of this section for a program of state inspection for the processing and sale of meat products from amenable species only if the program is approved by the federal government.

(c) Regulations adopted by the department under this section must impose requirements that are not less stringent than the requirements imposed under 21 U.S.C. 601 - 695 (Federal Meat Inspection Act) and 7 U.S.C. 1901 - 1907 (Humane Methods of Slaughter Act).

(d) Subject to (b) of this section, and except as provided in (e) of this section, if the department adopts regulations to establish a program of state inspection for the processing and sale of meat products, the department shall

(1) license facilities that process meat products for sale to the public;

(2) adopt license requirements and fees for facilities that process meat products for sale to the public; and

(3) use officers and employees of the department to inspect facilities that are licensed under this subsection.

(e) The department may not establish, administer, or enforce a program of inspection under this section for facilities that process meat products from equines.

(f) In this section,

(1) "amenable species" has the meaning given in 21 U.S.C. 601(w);

(2) "equine" means a member of the family Equidae."

Message dated May 16 was read stating the House passed and returned for consideration CS FOR SENATE BILL NO. 71(FIN) "An Act relating to special request registration plates celebrating the arts; relating to artwork in public buildings and facilities; relating to the management of artwork under the art in public places fund; relating to the powers and duties of the Alaska State Council on the Arts; establishing the Alaska arts and cultural investment fund; and providing for an effective date" with the following amendment(s):

HOUSE CS FOR CS FOR SENATE BILL NO.
71(STA)

Senator Hughes moved the Senate concur in the House amendment(s).

The question being: "Shall the Senate concur in the House amendment(s)?" The roll was taken with the following result:

HCS CSSB 71(STA)

Shall the Senate Concur in the House Amendment to CSSB 71(FIN)?
Effective Date(s)

YEAS: 18 NAYS: 0 EXCUSED: 0 ABSENT: 2

Yeas: Begich, Bishop, Costello, Gray-Jackson, Hoffman, Holland, Hughes, Kawasaki, Kiehl, Micciche, Myers, Olson, Reinbold, Shower, Stedman, Stevens, Wielechowski, Wilson

Absent: Revak, von Imhof

and so, the Senate concurred in the House amendment(s), thus adopting HOUSE CS FOR CS FOR SENATE BILL NO. 71(STA) "An Act relating to special request registration plates celebrating the arts; relating to artwork in public buildings and facilities; relating to the management of artwork under the art in public places fund; relating to the powers and duties of the Alaska State Council on the Arts; establishing the Alaska arts and cultural investment fund; and providing for an effective date."

Senator Hughes moved and asked unanimous consent the vote on concurrence be considered the vote on the effective date clause. Without objection, it was so ordered.

The Secretary was requested to notify the House.

The bill was referred to the Secretary for enrollment.

Reconsideration of House Bills

HB 172

Senator Reinbold gave notice of reconsideration on SENATE CS FOR CS FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 172(FIN) "An Act relating to crisis stabilization centers, crisis residential centers, and subacute mental health facilities; relating to evaluation facilities; relating to representation by an attorney; relating to the administration of psychotropic medication in a crisis situation; relating to the use of psychotropic medication; relating to licensed facilities; relating to psychiatric patient rights; amending Rule 6(a), Alaska Rules of Civil Procedure; and providing for an effective date" and moved and asked unanimous consent it be taken up. Without objection, the bill was before the Senate on reconsideration.

Senator Reinbold moved the bill be returned to second reading for the purpose of a specific amendment, that being Amendment No. 10. Objections were heard.

The question being: "Shall the bill be returned to second reading for the purpose of a specific amendment?" The roll was taken with the following result:

SCS CSHB 172(FIN)

Third Reading - On Reconsideration
