6 (b) The division may issue an initial lumber grading certificate to an 7 individual who has not completed the lumber grading training program if the 8 individual provides proof to the division that the individual

9 (1) holds a current certification from a lumber grading agency
10 accredited by the American Lumber Standard Committee, Incorporated; or

11 (2) has a bachelor's or postgraduate degree in forest products or wood 12 science and technology, or an equivalent degree as determined by the division.

13 (c) An individual holding a certificate, including an individual who received

24 must be milled in a manner that meets or exceeds the requirements of the applicable
25 building code adopted for one-, two-, and three-family dwellings for the location 26 where the lumber will be used or, if a building code for that location has not been
