3 permitting a person to acquire meat from a producer by way of an ownership share in 4 an animal if certain conditions are met."

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

6 * Section 1. AS 17.20 is amended by adding new sections to read:

7 Article 7A. Homemade Food; Animal Shares.

8 Sec. 17.20.332. Exemption for homemade food. (a) Except as otherwise 9 provided in AS 17.20.332 - 17.20.338, a homemade food produced, sold, and 10 consumed in compliance with this section is exempt from state labeling, licensing, 11 packaging, permitting, and inspection requirements.

12 (b) The sale of a homemade food under this section

13 (1) is only for personal consumption;

14 (2) must occur in the state at a farmers' market, an agricultural fair, a

1 farm, a ranch, the producer's home or office, the retail location of a third-party seller, 2 or a location agreed on between the producer and the buyer; and

3 (3) may not involve

4 (A) interstate commerce; or

5 (B) the purchase or sale of

6 (i) meat or meat products, except as provided in (h) of 7 this section;

9 (iii) a controlled substance;

10 (iv) oil rendered from animal fat; or

12 (c) Except for raw, unprocessed fruits and vegetables, a homemade food may 13 not be sold or used in a commercial food establishment.

14 (d) A homemade food may be sold from a retail space located at a ranch, farm, 15 or home where the homemade food is produced or at a retail location of a third-party
16 seller. A retail space selling a homemade food shall prominently display a sign 17 indicating that the homemade food was made in a home kitchen, may contain 18 allergens, and is not, except for meat and meat products permitted under (h) of this 19 section, regulated or inspected. A homemade food for sale at a retail location or 20 grocery store may not be displayed or offered for sale on the same shelf or display as 21 inspected food. If a retail space selling a potentially hazardous homemade food is in 22 any way associated with a commercial food establishment or offers for sale any 23 inspected food, the retail space shall

24 (1) maintain physical separation from the commercial food
25 establishment with a separate door and separate cash register or point of sale;

26 (2) display signs or other markings clearly indicating which separate 27 spaces offer inspected foods and which offer uninspected foods and meat and meat

6 applicable, the producer's business license number; and

7 (2) the statement: "This food was made in a home kitchen, is not 8 regulated or inspected, except for meat and meat products, and may contain allergens."

9 (f) The seller of a potentially hazardous homemade food, except eggs, must 10 also be the producer of the homemade food. The seller of eggs or a homemade food 11 that is not a potentially hazardous homemade food may be the producer of the item, an 12 agent of the producer, or a third-party vendor, including a retail shop or grocery store, 13 as long as the sale is made in compliance with this section and all applicable federal 14 and local laws.

15 (g) Before a sale of an unpackaged homemade food under this section, a 16 producer or third-party seller

17 (1) shall inform the buyer that the unpackaged homemade food was 18 prepared in accordance with AS 17.20.332 - 17.20.338 and is not subject to certain 19 state certification, labeling, licensing, packaging, regulation, or inspection 20 requirements; and

21 (2) provide the buyer with the producer's name, current address, 22 telephone number, and, if applicable, the producer's business license number.

23 (h) Subject to the requirements of federal law, a person may prepare and sell 24 meat, meat products, and homemade food containing meat or meat products under this 25 section.

26 Sec. 17.20.334. Animal shares. (a) A person may acquire meat from a 27 producer by way of an ownership interest in the animal or herd from which the meat

6 the meat, or on a label attached to the packaging of the meat, a clearly visible warning 7 that the meat has not been inspected; and

8 (4) the producer provides the person information describing the health 9 of the animal or herd and the meat processing standards of the producer's farm or 10 ranch.

11 (b) A producer or a person designated by a producer may deliver meat to a 12 person at a farm, ranch, farmers' market, home, office, or other location agreed on 13 between the producer and the person.

14 (c) For a person to have an ownership interest in an animal or herd under this 15 section, the person's ownership interest must be documented in a written contract 16 between the person and a producer that includes
