FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2023 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

This bill prohibits cities and boroughs from imposing a tax on the sale of specie. It also defines legal tender as a recognized medium of exchange for the payment of debts and specie as gold or silver valued based on its metal content and in the form of a coin or bullion stamped with its weight and purity.

There will be minimal impact on the Division of Finance and the State of Alaska's accounting system, which can be absorbed with existing resources.
