FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2023 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This bill adds the 19th of June, also known as Juneteenth Day, to the list of legal holidays in AS 44.12.010(a).

This would affect the Alaska State Libraries, Archives and Museums facilities, particularly the Alaska State Museum in Juneau and the Sheldon Jackson Museum in Sitka, which would remain open during this holiday due to the summer tourism season.

The minimum staff needed at the Alaska State Museum to continue operations is five (5), calculated at an additional $1.8 for overtime costs, as well as contracted security and custodial services, calculated at approximately $1.5 for the day. The minimum staff needed at the Sheldon Jackson Museum for operations is three (3), calculated at an additional $1.0 for overtime costs, as well as contracted custodial services, calculated at approximately $0.3 for the day.
