FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2024 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

Background

Alaska Statute 14.57.210 (Acquisition of title to undocumented property) outlines the process for a museum to follow to acquire legal title to undocumented property, such as objects, photographs, or ephemera, found within its collections.

Alaska Statute 14.57.210(b) describes where (in a newspaper) and how long (four consecutive weeks) public notice of the undocumented property must be advertised. If the museum does not receive a valid claim for the undocumented property during the prescribed time (45 days after last publication), the museum then acquires title to the property.

This bill proposes to amend Alaska Statute 14.57.210(b) to require public notice of undocumented property on an Internet webpage maintained by the museum and in a newspaper or on a social media account maintained by the museum.

This bill also proposes to amend Alaska Statute 14.57.210(b)(1) to include an email address for the museum representative to contact for a claim of ownership and (4) to include the initial date of publication on the Internet webpage.

There is no cost to the department as a result of the legislation.
