With respect to the religious beliefs of those gathered here today, I invite you to be in an attitude of prayer or reflection:

Almighty God,

As we take this moment to pause, I pray for these members of the House of Representatives. In thanksgiving for their work, I would ask for your wisdom to instruct them, for clarity of vision and purpose to guide them as they work for the people of Alaska.

I pray that they will be guided by integrity and a desire for justice. Give them strength of character and be with them as they face the challenges of their office.

I pray that you will help them to work together in unity and the desire to find common ground. Surround them, their families, their constituents, and all who live in this great land of Alaska, and this your world in your mercy.

I ask all of this in your holy name. Amen.
