ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

April 17, 2024

Ninety-third Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Tilton at 10:33 a.m.

Roll call showed 39 members present. Representative Sumner was absent and his presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, The Reverend Karen Perkins of Resurrection Lutheran Church. Representative Vance moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

Rooted in God's abundant love for the world, I pray for our neighbors, our communities, and all of creation.

I praise you, O Lord, the source of all goodness. Give this body a holy curiosity to ask questions and build bridges across difference. Commit us to respectful and faithful dialogue with Indigenous neighbors. Commit this body to a holy appreciation for the abundance of the earth that feeds us. Bless those who labor to bring that food to our mealtimes. Commit the leaders here, and all elected officials, to seek justice and equality for all. Guide them to prioritize the common good over any narrow individualism.

I praise you for your tender care. In times of worry and uncertainty, renew all trust in your wisdom and abundance. Sustain us with lives of gratitude for all whose service came before this House and hope for all whose service will follow.

I offer these prayers to you, gracious God, trusting in your boundless love for all that you have made, in your holy name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative D. Johnson.

Insert "the department or by"

Insert new material to read:

"(c) A person may request that the department designate certain water of the state as outstanding national resource water by submitting a nomination to the department. The nomination must include

- (1) a detailed description of the water;
- (2) relevant water quality data to the extent that it is available;
- (3) the reason the water is being nominated, including information on the water's archaeological, cultural, scientific, or recreational significance;
- (4) whether the water is in or adjacent to a park, monument, refuge, fish and game critical habitat area, or other protected area;
- (5) a summary of stakeholder and community support for designation of the water as outstanding national resource water; and
- (6) other information supporting the nomination.

(d) Within 60 days after receiving a nomination under (c) of this section, the department shall determine whether the nomination contains the required information. If the department determines that a nomination is incomplete, the department shall notify the person who submitted the nomination in writing and identify the information still required by the department. A person notified under this subsection may resubmit the nomination with the information required by the department.

(e) If the department determines that a nomination includes all information required under (c) of this section, the department shall consider the nomination complete. Once the department determines that a nomination is complete, the department shall

(1) provide public notice of the nomination within 60 days by

(A) posting notice of the determination on the Alaska Online Public Notice System (AS 44.62.175);

(B) making a copy of the nomination available on the department's Internet website; and

(C) providing a copy of the nomination and the notice to adjacent landowners and the Department of Natural Resources;

(2) provide at least 60, but not more than 120, days for public comment;

(3) hold at least one public hearing during the public comment period; the department shall give reasonable public notice of the time, date, and place of each public hearing at least 30 days before the hearing; and

(4) consult with the Department of Fish and Game, federally recognized tribes in the area where the water is located, and relevant federal land managers.

(f) The department shall make a final decision in writing of whether to designate water as outstanding national resource water within 180 days after the end of the public comment period under (e) of this section. The department shall provide public notice of the decision.

(g) When considering whether water shall be designated as outstanding national resource water under (f) of this section, the department shall consider whether

(1) the water is habitat for fish or other wildlife;

(2) the water has recreational value;

(3) endangered fish or other wildlife are present in the water;

(4) the water or a portion of the water is in or adjacent to a park, monument, refuge, fish and game critical habitat area, or another protected area;

(5) the water is of exceptional quality;

(6) the water is of significant archaeological, cultural, or scientific importance;

(7) the water provides special educational opportunities;

(8) the water contains unique aquatic habitat.

(h) A person aggrieved by a final decision of the department under (f) of this section may, within 90 days after notice of the final decision, request an adjudicatory hearing under AS 44.62.330 - 44.62.630.

* Sec. 2. AS 46.03.880(b) is amended to read:

(b) Notwithstanding AS 44.62.330(a)(25), except for a hearing under AS 46.03.085(h), adjudicatory hearing procedures to review permit decisions under this chapter need not conform to AS 44.62.330 - 44.62.630 (Administrative Procedure Act)."

Renumber the following bill section accordingly.

Representative Josephson moved and asked unanimous consent that Amendment No. 2 be adopted.

Representative Saddler objected.

The question being: "Shall Amendment No. 2 be adopted?" The roll was taken with the following result:

HB 95 am
