One Hundred Fourteenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Tilton at 10:40 a.m.

Roll call showed 39 members present. Representative Carpenter was absent, and his presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Nancy Campbell of White Fields Church. Representative Vance moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With respect for the religious beliefs of each person here,
I offer this prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father,

I approach your throne boldly, knowing that you, my Lord, hear my prayers. Thank you for your loving kindness and grace that you extend to us. Thank you that you are here, now, with the House as they convene to address the business of the State of Alaska. Grant them wisdom and knowledge as they debate this day's agenda.

I pray for strength and endurance as they draw near the end of this session. Bring refreshing to their minds and their bodies. Lift any burdens they may be carrying off their shoulders and let your peace, the peace that passes all understanding, rest upon them.

HOUSE JOURNAL

I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Saddler.
