^FUND TRANSFERS

8:57:09 AM

Vice-Chair Johnson MOVED to ADOPT the following in Fund Transfers:

Item 1 Senate
Modify by adopting amendment T.37

Chair Stedman explained that the effect of this amendment was to raise the threshold before the FY25 'waterfall' starts. This effectively leaves the first $135 million of revenue above the spring forecast available for appropriations. This is estimated to be at prices between $78 and $81 per barrel.

There being NO OBJECTION, it was so ordered.

This action closed the conference-able items in Fund Transfers.

Representative Ortiz asked for clarification about leaving an amount of money for appropriations. He asked whether the word "appropriations" signified any kind of appropriations.

Chair Stedman thought the Legislative Finance Director could address Representative Ortiz's question.

8:58:26 AM

ALEXEI PAINTER, DIRECTOR, LEGISLATIVE FINANCE DIVISION, explained that the language directed additional revenue received to be split between the Statutory Budget Reserve and energy relief checks. He noted that the configuration was similar to the waterfall provision in the current year and would go into effect at $135 million above the spring revenue forecast. The condition would leave $135 million available for appropriation.

Representative Ortiz asked if the $135 million could be used for anything.

Mr. Painter answered in the affirmative, including supplemental items.

Representative asked if the amount signified "headroom."

Mr. Painter answered affirmatively.

Co-Chair Stedman explained that when the members referred to "headroom" it indicated having space in the budget that was unappropriated revenue for items such as forest fires, agency expenditures, or natural disasters.

Vice-Chair Johnson MOVED to ADOPT the following in Language and Other Appropriations:

^FY24 OPERATING SUPPLEMENTAL ITEMS

9:00:47 AM

Vice-Chair Johnson MOVED to ADOPT the following in FY24 Supplemental Operating Items:

Item 15	House
	Modify by adopting amendment T.41

The effect of adopting amendment T.41 is to increase the funds available for an energy relief payment in the current year. This will raise the estimated payment from $222 per person, which was based on the Spring Revenue Forecast, to $295 per person.

Item 16	Senate
---------	--------

^MONETARY TERMS OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS

9:01:44 AM

Vice-Chair Johnson MOVED to ADOPT Packet 1, titled "Monetary Terms of Collective Bargaining Agreements." She explained that the packet funded the negotiated contracts for:

- Labor, Trades and Crafts Unit
- Alaska Public Employees Association/Supervisory Unit
- Alaska Graduate Workers Association

There being NO OBJECTION, it was so ordered. This action closed the items in Monetary Terms of Collective Bargaining Agreements.

^FISCAL NOTES

9:02:22 AM

Vice-Chair Johnson MOVED to ADOPT Packet 2 titled "Fiscal Notes." She explained that the document added a new Section 2 to both the Operating Budget, HB 268, and the Mental Health budget, HB 270:

1. Section 2 makes appropriations associated with the bills listed.
2. If a bill listed either fails to pass, its substance fails to be incorporated in some other measure, or is vetoed by the Governor, the appropriations associated with that bill are reduced.
3. The attached reports prepared by the Legislative Finance Division list the fund sources and agencies associated with the bill.

Chair Stedman asked Mr. Painter if he had any comments that he would like to make regarding the mental health fiscal notes.

Mr. Painter indicated that the only fiscal notes in the mental health bill were a portion of SB 259, which paid for exempt employees and a portion of which was mental health. The rest of the fiscal notes were in HB 268, the operating budget.

There being NO OBJECTION, it was so ordered.

Vice-Chair Johnson MOVED to give Legislative Finance and Legislative Legal Services the ability to make technical and conforming adjustments to the Conference Committee Substitute for House Bill 268. There being NO OBJECTION, it was so ordered.
