Why this fiscal note differs from previous version/comments:

Not applicable, initial version. One page, zero note.

SB 34 repeals the statutory 90-day session limit and returns the Legislature to a 121-day session limit as required by the Alaska Constitution. The Legislature's annual budget currently includes funding for a 121-day regular session, as well as a 30-day special session; therefore, no additional funding is needed as a result of this legislation.
