FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2025 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

This bill amends AS.44.33.810 to change the number of local boundary commission members from five to six. This bill also adds a requirement that commission members from each judicial district must maintain a principal place of residence and be registered to vote in that district.

This bill provides an effective date of January 31, 2026.

The Division of Community and Regional Affairs anticipates a minor increase for travel for the additional commission member should this legislation pass. These costs will be absorbed in the division's FY2026 budget.
