FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2025 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

This bill separates the Cook Inlet set gillnet permit holder category into two new administrative areas. The Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission (CFEC) would reassign applicable entry permits to the new east side Cook Inlet administrative area if an existing permit holder requests reassignment and provides sufficient proof to CFEC that the individual meets the criteria set out in the bill.

The CFEC can manage reassignment of entry permits under this bill within its existing permitting processes and staffing. Therefore, the CFEC does not anticipate any fiscal impact and submits a zero fiscal note.
