FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2025 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This bill allows individuals and entities across various sectors of private industry to apply credits to the taxes levied upon them for making donations of cash or equipment to public schools or programs that are operated by a tribal entity or tribally empowered Alaska Native organization through a compact with the state, as well as any donations of cash or equipment for the purposes of a state-funded literacy program, to be administered by the department.

The bill extends the amount of tax credits allowed to $10,000,000 from the current limit of $3,000,000 for individuals and corporate entities referenced in the associated statutes.

This bill has an effective date of January 1, 2026.
