

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

February 26, 2025

Thirty-seventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:36 a.m.

Roll call showed 38 members present. Representative Dibert had been excused from a call of the House today. Representative Vance was absent and later excused (page 253).

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Tari Stage-Harvey of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church. Representative Story moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Honoring the tradition of all, I share some of the commands from Jesus out of my tradition:

Jesus says wake up over a dozen times. Wake up to the life you are living. Wake up because something is coming that is going to need all your energy and strength. Awaken, shake off the excuses, apathy, and lethargy, and engage wholeheartedly in the business before us.

Jesus says peace be with you over 15 times and love 17 times. Peace and love - they are not feelings, but ways of wholeness and healing for the community. Peace and love are about seeing the big picture where all are fed, where justice prevails, and harmony triumphs.

Jesus says do not be afraid over 20 times. So be of good courage and do the bold thing, gird up your loins and seek justice, do not be afraid to love, to do the right thing, to make sacrifices.

The command to pay attention occurs over 100 times in the gospels - more than any other command. Listen to your life, to each other, to the spirit. Open your eyes to pay attention to those who are often invisible, children, the elderly, the poor, the lost. As Frederick Buechner wrote, To love God means to pay attention. Be mindful. Be open to the possibility that God is with you in ways that, unless you have your eyes open, you may never glimpse.

Wake up, peace and love be with you, do not be afraid and pay attention. Those are the commands and that is my prayer for you today. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Hall.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Kopp moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 35th and 36th legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
