With respect for the beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

Blessed are you who leave what is comfortable and known to serve the greater good and seek what is right. Blessed are you who sift through emails, papers, and texts to figure out what is the next most faithful thing to do. Blessed are you who are pragmatists, who do the math and figure out what will work and what will not.

Blessed are you who are dreamers and imagine a world where children do not hunger, housing is ample, healthcare is available, and basic needs are met for all. Blessed are you who feel grumpy and frustrated, may bad moods get interrupted with meaningful relationships and good humor.

Blessed are you who grieve, who carry the wounds of your life and your community into this place and seek some kind of healing. Blessed are you who feel overwhelmed and unsure, may the spirit of wisdom and curiosity open doors and possibilities you never imagined. May you be blessed as you seek to be a blessing to your communities, state, nation, and world. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Hannan.

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a resolution to amend the Constitution of the State of Alaska, Article IV, Section 5. The proposed amendment would streamline the judicial appointment process by allowing the Governor to fill a vacancy in the Supreme Court or the Superior Court from among all persons determined by the Judicial Council to meet the constitutional qualifications, rather than from a limited number of names.

This change clarifies and simplifies how vacancies are filled, ensuring the Governor has a broader pool of qualified candidates while preserving the Judiciary's integrity and independence.

I respectfully request your prompt and favorable consideration of this resolution.

Sincerely,
/s/
Mike Dunleavy
