Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:39 a.m.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Trenton Cooper of Glacier Valley Baptist Church. Representative Story moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With respect for all people, including those with differing beliefs, I invite you to a time of prayer and reflection:

Heavenly Father, I come to you today to praise you for your works. The mountains speak of your majesty. The ocean shows your brilliance. Yet, of all creation, humanity is your crowning achievement. You intricately created everyone, and your word tells us that you care for everyone. I praise you for this wonderful truth.

As this body gathers here today, I know that you have brought each one here for a purpose. You have placed these leaders here so that they might lead our great state. I pray a blessing on them today. I ask that you give them wisdom to make decisions that bring prosperity to all Alaskans. I ask that when it comes to making difficult decisions, you would provide them with the courage and fortitude to do what is right.

And lastly, pray a blessing on each one here. May each person come to the knowledge of your goodness. May all understand that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate your people from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus. I ask these things in Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Kopp.
