With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

O Lord, we thank you for this day to carry on the work you would have us do to fulfill your will. There are tough choices to be made for the well-being of our state. I ask for wisdom, courage, and discernment for each of these representatives to work together and find common ground to do the best for our people. Bless them with strength and courage to make wise decisions. I pray that we may be a people of peace among ourselves and a blessing to all in the world.

I pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.
