ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

THIRTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

May 9, 2025

One Hundred Ninth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:44 a.m.

Roll call showed 38 members present. Representative Nelson had been excused from a call of the House today.

Representative Kopp moved and asked unanimous consent that Representative Allard be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Student Rabbi Jennifer Moses of Congregation Sukkat Shalom. Representative Story moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With respect for the religious beliefs of each person here, I offer this prayer:

Blessed are you, God of our ancestors. May it be your will to grant this House of Representatives, elected by and for the benefit of the people of this great state of Alaska, wisdom in all its work.

God has fashioned all of us with understanding and knowledge. May this House bring those qualities to bear on its deliberations. God brings justice and compassion to all the earth. May this House also bring justice and compassion to its work. Blessed are the lawmakers.

Let us say, Amen.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Governor's letter dated May 7 was received:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority granted to me by Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am submitting this message to the Legislature concerning the fiscal future of the State of Alaska.

Several tax proposals have been introduced during this legislative session. While I too share the concern about how we will fund government in the future, a "tax-and-spend" approach will not yield a sustainable, long-term fiscal solution. As I have consistently stated since my first term, a truly durable fiscal plan must include revenues, but it also requires clear guardrails: spending limits, statutory and regulatory reviews, and policies that make Alaska the most competitive state in the nation for investment and new business growth.

Equally important is the need to evaluate all current state spending and government functions - not only for efficiency, but for their relevance and long-term impact. Any serious effort to stabilize Alaska's fiscal future must also focus on diversifying our economy and creating new industries, which in turn broadens the economic base for potential revenue.

HOUSE JOURNAL

As such, I cannot support standalone tax measures. I am issuing this message to reaffirm my long-standing position as Governor: the Legislature and the Executive Branch must establish a joint team to develop a comprehensive, sustainable long-term fiscal plan that ensures stability and fosters economic growth.

We have an opportunity, post-session, to form this team and begin identifying, researching, and drafting legislation around the core components of such a fiscal plan to underpin Alaska's future. By transmittal of this message, I am formally requesting legislative leadership join me in convening a joint team to begin this process.

Sincerely,

Mike Dunleavy
Governor"
