THIRTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST SESSION

May 13, 2025

One Hundred Thirteenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:44 a.m.

Roll call showed 39 members present. Representative Nelson was absent, and his presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Rauscher. Representative Story moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the respect for all faiths, I offer this invocation:

Father God in heaven, we bow our heads in recognition of your wisdom and leadership as we gather here today. We acknowledge the significance of invoking your presence through prayer and supplication. We ask your spirit to teach our hearts and minds as we seek your wisdom and guidance. We come before you with reverence, knowing that your presence is a source of strength and inspiration.

It is the concept of invocation in prayer where we seek a deeper understanding of its spiritual significance to our work on the floor here.

Help us to focus our hearts and minds on your will, as we seek your wisdom and grace. Help us to comprehend that will in our duty before us today. Help us to search our hearts to better understand how to provide for our fellow man. Father God, give peace in our hearts that we have heard your voice and shall respond in accordance to your will.

Father God, you alone are our strength, you alone are our hope. Guide us in our burden to foster an ability to help our fellow man become self-sufficient and be a provider to those who struggle so to get there.

This is the day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it.

It is in the name Jesus Christ I offer this prayer. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Elam.
