One Hundred Nineteenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 11:28 a.m.

Roll call showed 39 members present. Representative Vance was absent, and her presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Holland. Representative Story moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With deepest respect for the religious beliefs of each person here, I invite you into a time of reflection and prayer:

Beginning where I did four months ago by reading from the 2nd chapter of Proverbs, beginning with the 1st verse, where wisdom is calling out to us:

*My son, if you receive my words
and treasure up my commandments with you,
making your ear attentive to wisdom
and inclining your heart to understanding;
yes, if you call out for insight
and raise your voice for understanding,
if you seek it like silver
and search for it as for hidden treasures,
then you will understand the fear of the Lord*

*and find the knowledge of God.
For the Lord gives wisdom;
from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;
he stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
he is a shield to those who walk in integrity,
guarding the paths of justice
and watching over the way of his saints.*

Let us pray:

Father, as we near the close of this session, guide our efforts and give us grace so that the wisdom we have sought and spoken will take root in our hearts and guide our steps forward.

Draw us together in a spirit of grace - your grace - which is a gift and a duty. Hold us together in your presence, so that we do not serve alone, but as one body, bound by trust, purpose, and care for all.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Hall.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Kopp moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 118th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
