Almighty God, I thank you for your word which presents us your heart, full of grace and love. I thank you for this moment when we can all focus on your wisdom written in Psalm 37, verses 29-31:

The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.

And so, I pray that the words of wisdom will be uttered here today, and that justice will flow from decisions made here. Remind us all today of your law and instructions as well as testimony of your grace and love within our own lives or in lives of those living around us.

I pray for peace and prosperity of Alaska in Jesus' name, Amen.

was read the first time and referred to the Finance Committee.

The following fiscal note(s) apply:

1. Zero, Office of the Governor

The Governor's transmittal letter dated January 22 follows:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Alaska relating to the Alaska permanent fund. This constitutional amendment is designed to provide long-term fiscal certainty, extend constitutional protections to Permanent Fund earnings and establish durable rules for withdrawals, and place the Permanent Fund Dividend beyond annual political cycles.

This amendment makes three reforms. First, it ends the current two-account structure by merging the earnings reserve account into the permanent fund corpus. Second, it establishes a limit on withdrawals by capping the annual draw at five percent of the fund's average market value using the existing five-year formula. Third, it requires the annual draw to be split equally: half is guaranteed to eligible Alaskans as dividends – without political games or further appropriation – and half is available to fund essential operations of government.

Alaskans deserve a Permanent Fund that is protected, predictable, and fair. This constitutional amendment allows the people of Alaska to decide that future directly.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,

/s/

Mike Dunleavy
Governor"

"An Act relating to the transfer of big game hunting permits; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Resources and Finance Committees.

The following fiscal note(s) apply:

The Governor's transmittal letter dated January 19 follows:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to the limited-entry big game drawing permit program.

When a drawing permit will not be used, the opportunity is lost, and the resource goes unused. This bill creates a narrow, regulated process allowing the original recipient of a big game drawing permit to transfer the permit one time to another eligible hunter, subject to conditions that preserve fairness and protect the integrity of the drawing system.

The bill integrates this new transfer authority with existing law for transfers to a family member following a hunter's death, with only minimal technical changes, and includes safeguards to protect the public interest, including a clear state liability shield. The bill is anticipated to increase participation in the draw hunt system and state revenue from application fees without a significant increase in administrative costs to the department.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,

Governor"

HB 267

HOUSE BILL NO. 267 by the House Rules Committee by request of the Governor, entitled:

The Governor's transmittal letter dated January 19 follows:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to unemployment insurance contribution rates and the funding of workforce training programs.

HOUSE JOURNAL

January 23, 2026

1477

Alaska's workforce requires consistent, high-quality training to meet the demands of a modern economy. Stable, predictable funding ensures Alaskans gain in-demand skills and employers can fill jobs.

This bill solves this challenge by restructuring the allocation of unemployment insurance contributions to improve long-term stability without increasing the overall tax burden on employers. It directs a specific portion of collected revenue to these training accounts before the funds are deposited into the Unemployment Compensation Fund. This approach secures funding for workforce development while preserving the core purpose of unemployment insurance and maintaining the solvency of the unemployment insurance system.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Governor"

HB 268

HOUSE BILL NO. 268 by the House Rules Committee by request of the Governor, entitled:

The following fiscal note(s) apply:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

HOUSE JOURNAL

1478

January 23, 2026

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to taxation of electricity and the tax treatment of qualifying electricity generation and storage facilities.

Affordable and reliable power is foundational to Alaska's economy. This bill reduces tax burdens that affect electric rates and improves the tax framework for new generation and storage investment by eliminating the current tax on electricity sold by electric cooperatives and expanding the existing exemption from state and local property, income, and excise taxes for qualifying electricity generation and storage facilities operated by independent power producers.

Under current law, the exemption applies only when a facility is operated by a public utility or by a power producer that serves only public utilities. This bill would extend eligibility to facilities serving customers other than public utilities, so long as those customers first begin receiving electric service on or after July 1, 2026.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,

/s/

Mike Dunleavy

The Governor's transmittal letter dated January 22 follows:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to the sunset review of government agencies. This bill establishes a process of sunset review for most state agencies on a six-year cycle, to assess performance and continued need. When an agency is under review, the legislative audit division will submit a report to the legislative budget and audit committee with recommendations on whether to continue, terminate, or reorganize the agency.

If the legislature does not enact legislation to continue or reorganize the agency in the regular session following a sunset review, the agency will automatically terminate and wind down over the next fiscal year. Any statutory functions will be absorbed by the department in which the agency is established.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

HB 275

HOUSE BILL NO. 275 by the House Rules Committee by request of the Governor, entitled:

"An Act relating to an appropriation limit; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Finance Committee.

The following fiscal note(s) apply:

1. Zero, Office of the Governor

The Governor's transmittal letter dated January 22 follows:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to the statutory appropriation limit. Current law allows total appropriations to grow by up to five percent plus population and inflation. This bill sets a more disciplined standard by limiting appropriations in a fiscal year to no more than one percent above the prior fiscal year.

Alaskans deserve a stable, rules-based fiscal system that avoids the boom-and-bust cycle and reduces pressure for new taxes. A meaningful limit on spending growth will protect essential services, improve budget predictability, and keep the size of government aligned with what Alaskans can sustain over time.

This measure is part of a broader approach to restoring trust in state finances, controlling growth in government, and ensuring long-term fiscal certainty.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,

/s/

Mike Dunleavy
Governor"

1. Fiscal, Dept. of Natural Resources

The Governor's transmittal letter dated January 22 follows:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill establishing commercial development parks. This bill enables the Department of Natural Resources to complete the required public notice and best-interest finding at the time a park is designated and then allows leasing or sale of land within the park for commercial use without repeating that process for each individual transaction.

Alaska's private-sector growth is often slowed by delay and uncertainty in land availability. This bill ensures public notice and a best interest finding occur at the outset, creating clarity for Alaskans and predictable timelines for responsible development.

In addition, this bill is intended to facilitate commercial development of state land by authorizing novel and innovative compensation structures for sales and leasing in commercial development parks. Finally, this bill includes several amendments to existing general leasing statutes intended to streamline and update existing procedures for the leasing of public land.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

1. Zero, Dept. of Commerce, Community, & Economic Development

The Governor's transmittal letter dated January 22 follows:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18 of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill enacting trust law reform in Alaska.

This bill modernizes Alaska trust law to provide clearer, more efficient trust administration. It (1) requires automatic sealing of trust administration cases; (2) permits non-judicial settlement agreements for trust administration matters; (3) adopts notice-based procedures that can reduce fiduciary liability for trust administration actions; (4) updates Alaska's decanting statutes to expand trustee powers and clarify definitions and tax guardrails; and (5) shortens creditor-notice time periods and clarifies solvency affidavit provisions.

These updates help keep Alaska competitive as a premier trust jurisdiction and provide Alaskans with modern options for managing and protecting assets across generations.
