

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Monday

March 9, 2026

Forty-ninth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:36 a.m.

Roll call showed 36 members present. Representative Allard had been excused from a call of the House today.

Representative Kopp moved and asked unanimous consent that Representatives Costello, Frier, and Stapp be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Reverend Dr. Keith Hamilton, President of Alaska Christian College. Representative Story moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Thanks for allowing me the privilege of being among you today. There are so many great friends over the years in this room today, and I am humbled. I want to share with you what Ben Franklin said personally to President George Washington nearly 250 years ago:

That henceforth, prayers imploring the assistance of Heaven, and its blessing on our deliberations, be held in this Assembly every morning before we proceed to business.

As it was then, it is still today, that we come before the Lord in prayer before our work begins. Let us pray:

Lord, today all gather in this capitol building to ask for guidance and direction for the elected leaders sitting in this mighty chamber. Each of them has been given a great responsibility to uphold the Constitution, to be fair in all matters, and to seek what is best for all the citizens of our great state. Their jobs can be hard, stressful, and at times can cause difficulty in their personal lives, especially being away from their loved ones and family. They have been chosen for, and have been elected to serve, all of our residents, and that is an enormous task. So, this day, again, I pray for our great leaders as they will have decisions to make that impact each of us. Use their wisdom to provide the best possible answers for Alaska's future as they do all they can to serve all Alaskans through the many roles that they have been called to. And we remember our friend Craig Johnson and ask comfort for Nancy, Erin, and Jenifer today.

I know our legislature in this chamber and the governor are working hard to serve our state best, on many critical issues, too numerous to mention. I pray for holy wisdom, incredible discernment, honest evaluation, and a strong sense of unity, which is sometimes very difficult in these hallowed halls. I ask for integrity to reign here with actions, words, and deeds that will result in what is best for all their constituents and all of us now as they deliberate these issues.

So, bring peace, Lord, to the legislative process today. And Lord, as I have prayed many times before in this chamber, protect each of our service men and women that come from our great state from harm as they have gone before us, in our places, to protect our country, our values, and our homes. I also ask for peace to come quickly to the Middle East. All this I ask in the name of your son Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Tomaszewski.
