With the deepest respect to the different beliefs of everyone in this room today, I offer this prayer according to my personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. I invite you to join me for this moment of prayer:

Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today, humbly as your servant and I ask for your face to shine upon us.

Blessed are you Lord, above all of creation. I come before you today in reverence. I am humbled by the immense duty you've placed upon each and every one of us in our particular positions.

Lord, I ask for your spirit to be present here today in this chamber and in this building as we conduct our work, and may we honor you in all that we say and in all that we do. May we give you all of the little things and in doing so, may we also submit to you the biggest things.

Guide those that you have placed into authority to work unto your will, and for your purposes. This great land, filled with your beautiful people, needs you now more than ever, Lord.

I thank you for your goodness and your graciousness and for remaining the same yesterday, today, tomorrow, and forever more. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Underwood.
